

BRENDA WATSON

Brenda Watson is a partner at Baker Watson Chartered Professional Accountants. Brenda has many years of experience providing accounting and tax services to a number of business and personal clients many of which are in the health field. Brenda previously worked for a national accounting firm and left in 2002 to start her own practice with her business partner. She has found owning her own business to be very fulfilling.

Brenda brings with her experience on a co-operative board from her time spent on the Access Communications Board. While on the Access Communications board, Brenda served on the audit, human resources, membership and governance committees. Brenda also brings board experience from her many years on the board of the Better Business Bureau of Saskatchewan and the Canadian Council of Better Business Bureaus.

Brenda has lived most of her life in Regina. She has always had a passion for learning (both her own and others) and has had the opportunity to enjoy both. Brenda graduated from the University of Regina with her Bachelor of Administration. She went on from there to receive her Chartered Accountant designation and then went on to complete the Tax In-Depth course. Brenda has taught the tax class at the University of Regina as a sessional lecturer and has taught tax classes for the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Saskatchewan. She also served as a member of the Syllabus Subcommittee for the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants. Brenda now enjoys working with and mentoring her staff.
