

WAYNE HELLQUIST

Wayne Hellquist is recognized as a visionary and leader in the nonprofit community in Regina and across the province. He has held senior management positions at the Regina Food Bank, the Saskatchewan Science Centre, the United Way of Regina, and University of Regina as well as SIAST and others.

Wayne has almost 50 years of experience as a board member of organizations at the local, provincial, national and international levels, including serving as Chair of the Board for Access Communications, Vice-President and interim President of the Canadian Olympic Association, Vice-President of the Global Foodbanking Network, Chair of the Board of Food Banks Canada, Chair of the Board for SaskExpress, and the Friends of the Royal Saskatchewan Museum as well as many other organizations. He also is passionate about the Co-operative principles and has been a long-term member of Access Communications, Conexus, and others.

For over 20 years, Wayne has been the owner of Future Quest Consulting, a boutique management consulting firm specializing in strategic planning, board governance and marketing and fundraising in the nonprofit sector. He is a much sought-after trainer and facilitator in policy development for corporations of all sizes.

Wayne has been selected as an International Technical Official from Canada serving at the Olympic, Paralympic, Commonwealth, and World Student Games. This past year, he was inducted into the Saskatchewan Sports Hall of Fame as a builder of the sport of volleyball.
